

Submitted by:
Bre England
Warren Central High School

September 6, 2011

In the News!

From Tragedy to Triumph

Just one year ago, the Warren Central Gold Brigade marching band presented an award-winning show, “The Last Breath”. A dramatic tragedy, this show received high praise from judges and audiences alike resulting in a sixth place finish at the ISSMA marching band state finals in. Despite its powerful and climactic ending, “The Last Breath” left much of the story untold. In 2011, the Gold Brigade is proud to present “From Tragedy to Triumph.” This production celebrates the ability to overcome adversity and tragedy, picking up from where the “The Last Breath” ended. “From Tragedy to Triumph” will tell the story of the darkness that surrounds tragedy and the journey to overcome it, building to a truly inspiring and uplifting conclusion. The Gold Brigade is led by drum majors Keifer Valencia, Lyric Gorman, and Carlos Martinez. The directors of the 2011 Gold Brigade are John Hilmer, Ed Meckes, Grady Emmert, Jeff Cleveland, and Matt Verplaetse. The band will perform in its first competition on Saturday September 17, at Plainfield High School. The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

Sept 24 – Hamilton Southeastern Invitational

October 1 – ISSMA District at Lawrence Central

October 8 – Warren Central Invitational

October 15 – ISSMA Regional at Center Grove

October 22 – ISSMA Semi-state at Ben Davis

October 29 – ISSMA State Finals at Lucas Oil Stadium